

I can't wait to be a Girl Scout. ♣

Being a Girl Scout means trying new things, making new friends and, of course, having lots of fun! From building robots to creating tasty treats to hiking through the woods – it's a chance to enjoy something you already love or do something you never dreamed possible. Color the items and activities on this page that you can't wait for in Girl Scouting.

